BLOCK CHAIN TECHNOLOGIES CLUB

The field of Blockchain in the IT sector is growing very fast. Blockchain technology provides one of the most secure and safe online transactions. It is estimated that Blockchain technology has been adopted by more than one-third of the companies in the world and demand for Blockchain developers is ever increasing.

This club focuses on training the members in Blockchain technology and its various applications such as land records and decentralized currency. Students develop basic application knowledge at the end of the sessions. The overall objective is to facilitate learning, exploration, and discussion on blockchain technology.
